

Development of Land Administration and Links to the Financial Markets

Mr. Kombo MWERO, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Lands, Kenya

CURRICULUM VITAE

Kombo Mwero is the Permanent Secretary in the Ministry of Lands and Housing was born in 5th December 1956. Mr. Kombo attended Kwale High School for East African School Certificate of Education. He holds a Bachelor of science in Surveying and Photogrammetry from University of Nairobi. Professionally he is a licensed land surveyor certificate No. 156, and a certified land surveyor (E.A).

He has attended various management training courses, achieving outstanding performance, Witwaters Rand, Johannesburg, South Africa, Strategic Planning and Leadership for mapping and land information organization, Sensitization workshop on staff performance appraisal in the public service, Senior Management Seminar, Survey and Mapping Seminar and Cabinet Memorandum writing Seminar.

He has worked as a Director of Surveys, Deputy Director of Surveys, Deputy Principal KISM., District Surveyor Mombasa, District Surveyor Kisumu and Lecturer at the Survey of Kenya School.

He is also the chairman of Land Surveyors Board, Association of Licensed Surveyors of Kenya, Standing Committee on Geographical Names and an alternate chair of East African Land Surveyors Examination Board. Mr. Kombo is a full member of Institute of Surveyors of Kenya. He has attended major professional forums, Global Mapping workshop, Expert Working Group on secure land tenure, Land in Africa conference, South Africa and Islands Hydrographic Commission.

Mr. Kombo has contributed in various publications, fundamental concepts of Spatial Data Infrastructure, and the e-government, spatial data infrastructure as a tool for secure land tenure, initiatives towards Spatial Data Infrastructure and Kenya Institute of Surveying and Mapping.

CONTACTS

Kombo Mwero
Permanent Secretary
Ministry on Lands and Housing
Ardhi Hse,
Ngong Rd
1st Ngong Avenue
P. O. Box 30450
Nairobi
KENYA
Email: ps@ardhi.go.ke