

Dr Diane Dumashie

FRICS, CEDR, APM

Candidate for FIG Vice President

- Who I am
- What I stand for

What you asked

That I bring to the FIG Council my experience of land professionalism combined with over a decade of active FIG involvement:

- Who:
  - An intent for Delivery
- What:
  - Purpose
  - Clarity
  - Action
- To explain . . . . .

Who: FIG Contribution

Drawing from my Business and land Professional experience

- Over 12 years of active involvement
  - Leadership, Workshops, Publications, Task Force
- Concise and considered strategic perspectives
- I believe the role of our organisation is to
  - achieve a balance between the differing needs of a broad profession
  - operating in the face of significant economic and global trends.

What I've done

Delivery 2015- 2018

- Purpose & Partnership
  - FIG Council duties; guide, steer, proactive input, ACCO Chair
  - Working week/ Congress: Comm chair
Technical session + Inspirational +New members sessions
- Clarity & collaboration (building relationships)
  - Representative with UN partners
  - Chair Regional Network (ARN/ ACP)
  - Chair Africa Regional network
- Action.....

Action- What I will continue to do

I am:

- Adept at high level deliberation and collaboration, negotiation, thinking and acting strategically.
- Accessible and respond to Member Associations

Why... I will continue to make a good VP

- I provide leadership to:
Connect, Communicate, Coordinate and
- My desire is to:
Continue to meaningfully Contribute

Continuing to Deliver

My promise to you:

- To continue to give my commitment to work with the Council to the best of my ability in the context of that council
- Evidenced by my past & present-
Passion, Confidentiality,
Commitment, Reliability,
Courage & Flexibility

....and

My heart is in the outdoors,

Where the Land meets the Sea

Thank You for
Your kind attention